

NES Leadership Behaviours

The five NES Leadership Behaviours describe how we work at NES, and how we want colleagues to behave, whatever their role:

Inspiring

- Passionate about our purpose and about excellence
- Communicating with enthusiasm
Innovative and learning from success as well as setbacks

Empowering

- Giving our colleagues space and authority to deliver outcomes
- Investing in learning and development
- Being approachable and open to constructive challenge

Adaptive

- Responding flexibly to changing requirements and helping others to do the same
- Recognising that required expertise may not always sit at the top of the hierarchy
- Actively encourage innovative ideas/input from all levels

Collaborative

- Committed to working together and across professional, clinical, and organisational boundaries internally and externally to achieve our objectives
- Sharing knowledge and skill for the benefit of the organisation as a whole
- Seeking feedback from colleagues to ensure quality

Engaged and Engaging

- Committed to our values, agreed ways of working and our strategic and operational direction
- Visible to our stakeholders and to our teams
- Straightforward and honest in our communications
